Missoula Organization of REALTORS® to host “Stuff the Truck” Event this Friday, Nov. 22nd at Pattee Creek Market

November 20, 2024 (Missoula, Montana) — As part of the Missoula Food Bank & Community Center’s Can the Cats Food Drive going on now, the Missoula Organization of REALTORS® (MOR) will host a “Stuff the Truck” event this Friday, November 22nd.

The Missoula Food Bank’s “Kids Eat Free” truck will be parked at Pattee Creek Market (704 SW Higgins Ave) from 3pm to 6pm, and the public is encouraged to purchase/drop off their food donations to help stock the shelves of the Missoula Food Bank & Community Center, and the University of Montana Food Pantry.

The following food items are the most needed according to the Missoula Food Bank:

- Peanut butter
- Canned corn
- Chili beans
- Mac & cheese
- Canned ravioli
- Chicken noodle soup

About Can the Cats Food Drive: Now in its 25th year, the annual Can the Cats Canned Food Drive is a friendly, off-field food drive competition between UM & the Missoula community and MSU & the Bozeman Community to see who can raise the most food & funds for our local communities. All donations collected in the Missoula area during this two-week food drive
